

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

Craig W Black and Camille R Brill, Appellants,

v.

Whitestone Homeowners’ Association, Donald Jurewicz, and Mary E Jurewicz,
Appellees.

Trial Court Case No. 3AN-16-05364CI

Supreme Court No. S-16986

Order

Appellate Rule 204

Date of Order: September 19, 2019

Whitestone Estates filed a motion requesting an award of fees under Appellate Rule 508(e). The motion is supported by an affidavit that includes $430.50 in assistant’s fees. Some of the time requested appears to involve clerical work not customarily performed by an attorney.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Whitestone Estates shall file a supplemental affidavit clarifying this request by September 30, 2019. The affidavit shall identify whether the assistant is an “investigator, paralegal or law clerk” as those terms are used in Civil Rule 82(b)(2) and whether the request is for work customarily performed by an attorney. Whitestone may revise its request accordingly.

Entered by direction of an individual justice.
